The University of Findlay has an MOU with SPIPS, Hanamkonda, that has a student exchange component and this will be the fifth group of students from SPIPS visiting University of Findlay. During the past three years three groups of students from the University of Findlay have visited and completed their advanced pharmacy rotation in India.

Purpose of this visit will be for the student to:

- Observe Pharmacy Practice in various settings
- Interact with faculty and students of The University of Findlay
- Learn about the culture and traditions of the U.S. through interaction with our students and faculty
- Do some sightseeing in Ohio

The visit will be from September 7 – October 5, 2019. During that stay, we shall accompany them and assist them with the arrangements for food and lodging. We understand SPIPS will sponsor their international travel and students will have purchased valid health insurance coverage for the duration of the trip. It is also understood that the original certificates for the student, Kiranmai Bollapally, will be under the possession of SPIPS as a custodian until she reports back to the Institution at the end of the trip in October, 2019.

During their stay Kiranmai Bollapally, will not be getting paid in any form or provide any services. The sole purpose of this visit is to gain understanding of pharmacy practice in the U.S., that in turn will enable them to implement similar practices in their home country.
